Connect with Nature on the Trails

Looking to escape the hustle and bustle of everyday life? Look no further than the inviting trails of Campbell County. Whether you're a seasoned hiker or a leisurely stroller, our trails have something for everyone. Experience the thrill of steep climbs along Candler's Mountain or enjoy gentle hills in Long Mountain and Community Parks. Take in serene water views at English Park in Altavista or Long Island Park in Gladys. Don't miss the opportunity to spot a beaver dam along the trails at Countywide Park. With trails for quick walks with your furry friend or longer paths for intense workouts—the choice is yours!

Discover the Roots of Your Food

Experience the wonders of farm life by visiting our family farms and foster a deeper connection with local food production. Pose with adorable cows or capture the picturesque landscapes of rolling fields and streams. Fall in love with vibrant sunflower fields, which make for memorable photo sessions. Savor the flavors of local wines while overlooking a sprawling vineyard. With pick-your-own seasons, pumpkin patches, corn mazes, farmers markets, classes, festivals, and farm tours, the excitement lasts all year.

Respect and Preserve Nature with Leave No Trace!

As outdoor enthusiasts, it's crucial to tread lightly and preserve the beauty around us. Follow the 7 Principles of Leave No Trace to ensure that future generations can enjoy these natural wonders:

- PLAN AHEAD AND PREPARE
- TRAVEL AND CAMP ON DURABLE SURFACES
- DISPOSE OF WASTE PROPERLY
- LEAVE WHAT YOU FIND
- MINIMIZE CAMPFIRE IMPACT
- RESPECT WILDLIFE
- BE CONSIDERATE OF OTHER VISITORS

Come and experience the wonders of Campbell County's great outdoors. Unwind, explore, and create lasting memories.

Embark on a Geocaching Adventure

Elevate your ordinary outings into a quest by embarking on a fun-filled game of hide and seek. With the Campbell Caches GeoTrail, a geocaching mini-tour of the county, you can turn a hike into a hunt. Sign up for a free membership at Geocaching.com and follow the clues to complete the tour. Become a Campbell County outdoor expert as you collect the codes from 20 locations on the GeoTrail. Collect all 20 codes from the caches to earn a challenge coin (while supplies last) and take your place on the Outstanding Campbell Cachers List. Discover more about the Campbell Caches GeoTrail and download the passport at CampbellVirginia.com/Get-Outside or visit a Campbell County Public Library for additional information.

Immerse Yourself in River Adventures

Campbell County is a paradise for river adventurers. Begin your scenic journey from downtown Lynchburg and conclude it in Campbell County with leisurely floats and paddles. Thrill-seekers can conquer the exhilarating Fish Trap (Class III) and Cat Rock (Class II) rapids between Long Island and Brookneal. Motorboat enthusiasts can explore large sections of the Staunton River from accessible ramps in Altavista, Long Island, and Brookneal. For nature lovers, the undeveloped shorelines along the James and Staunton Rivers provide abundant bird-watching and wildlife spotting opportunities. Try your luck at fishing for catfish, bass, crappie, sunfish, and walleye in the bountiful Staunton River.
